

RFID LapTop lockers with 18V laptop charging and asset tracking

Laptop lockers RFID console controlled, console consists of keypad, display unit and RFID reader. System is available with swipe card and biometric controls

Laptops charged using 18V charging lead

Control system allows authorised users access to the laptops stored within the system. Audit log and a comprehensive software controls are available

Asset tracking is available, system will monitor laptops removal and return allowing complete control over the stored laptops